

W.W. (8/21/2014)

- In Chapter 9, it is discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Barrymore had been lying to Watson in order to protect someone they cared about. Who is this person and why do they feel the need to protect him/her? Is it justified to do the wrong thing for the right reason?

Daily Agenda (8/21/2014)

1. Vocabulary 2 Quiz
2. Review Socratic Seminar Requirements
3. Conduct Socratic Seminar over Ch. 1-9
4. B.B.

Socrates

B.B.

- What is your opinion about the Socratic Seminar activity we did today?

Ch. 10 Guided Reading Questions

- 1) The narration changes once more in Chapter 10- how does Watson decide to change it?
- 2) What is the one quality that Watson possesses that enables him not to buy into the supernatural hound concept?
- 3) What is the one task that Watson is going to devote all of his energies into fulfilling?
- 4) What state is Sir Henry in at the start of Chapter 10?

5) What grievance does Barrymore have against Sir Henry and Watson? How do Henry and Watson decide to handle it?

6) Why was Sir Charles at the gate on the night of his death? How does Barrymore know this for a fact?

7) What happened to Dr. Mortimer's dog?

8) Who is Laura Lyons? Why would she be of interest to Watson?

9) What perplexing piece of information does Barrymore tell Watson at the end of Chapter 10? How does Barrymore know this information?