

W.W. (2/18/2015)

- Get your blue books first, then pull out your homework from yesterday for a homework check, then do the Welcome Work
- Prompt: Refugees
- Questions to help you answer:
  - What do you know about refugees from Syria?
  - How would you feel if you had to flee your home and your country? Where would you go?
  - How can we help refugees?

Daily Agenda (2/18/2015)

1. W.W.
2. Homework check (literary terms analysis for “Soft Rains”)
3. Revise theme for “There Will Come Soft Rains”
4. Notes: Theme Development in Nonfiction and Poetry
5. Background information: Kosovo Refugees (1999)
6. Read: “Letter to a Young Refugee” (page 456-459)
7. Tomorrow: Reading Quiz over “Letter to a Young Refugee”
8. B.B.

Kosovo Refugees (1999)

Refugee movements since 24 March

Total displaced since conflict began in 1998: at least 650,000

SOURCE: UNHCR/Red Cross

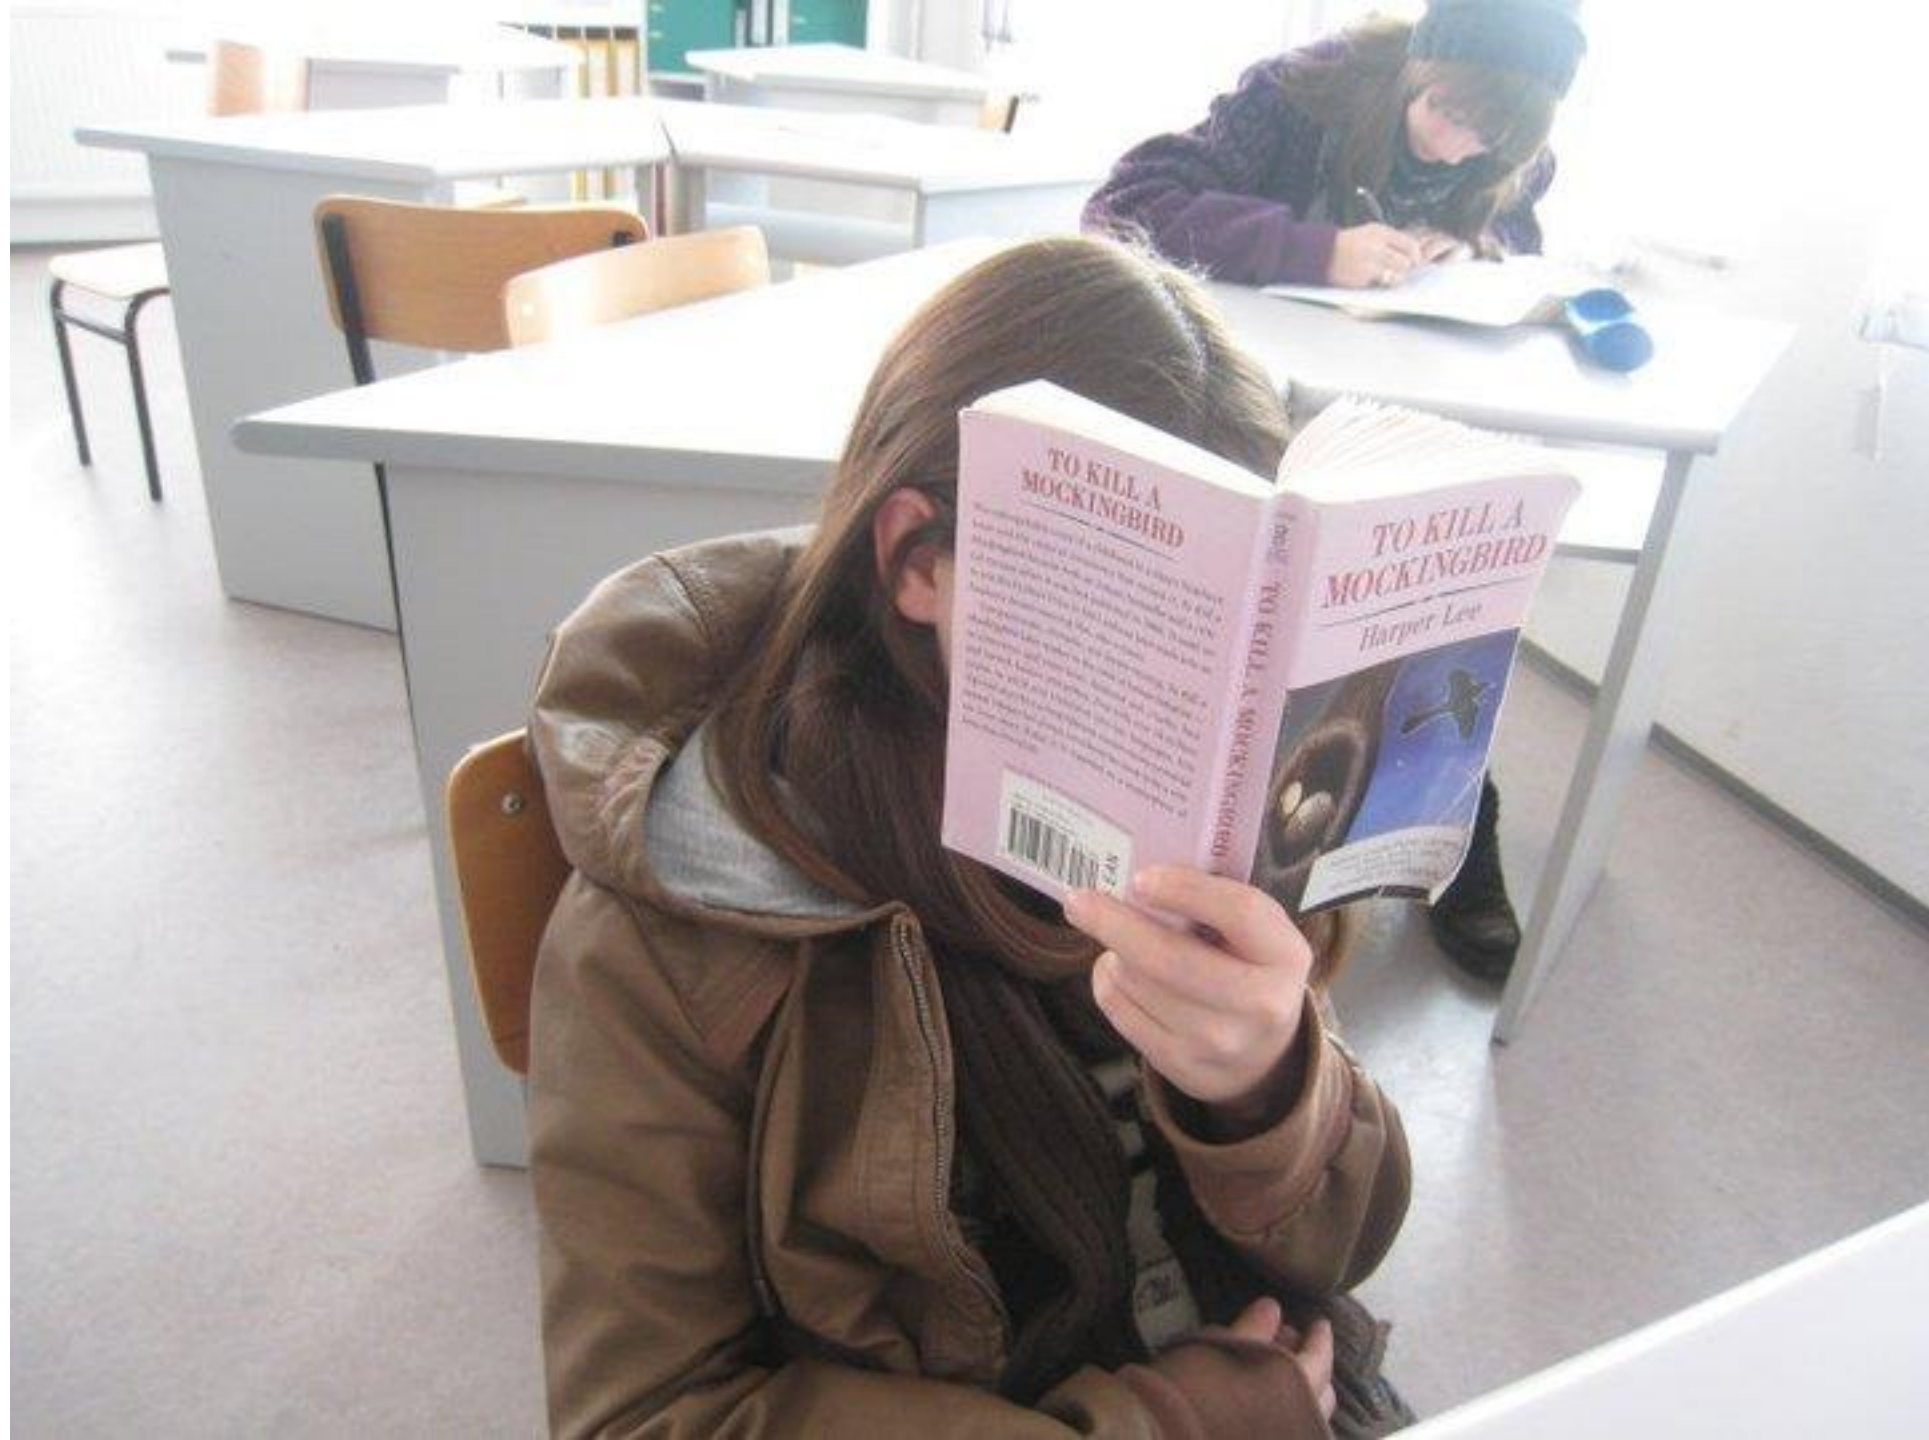

JO NEGO C
VETĚVEN
E!

BILL CLINTON

Daily Agenda (2/18/2015)

1. W.W.
2. Homework check (literary terms analysis for “Soft Rains”)
3. Revise theme for “There Will Come Soft Rains”
4. Notes: Theme Development in Nonfiction and Poetry
5. Background information: Kosovo Refugees (1999)
6. Read: “Letter to a Young Refugee” (page 456-459)
7. Tomorrow: Reading Quiz over “Letter to a Young Refugee”
8. B.B.

B.B.

- What was the point of view of “Letters to a Young Refugee”?