

W.W. (4/7/2015)

Fill in the blanks

1) Neither rhyme nor _____

2) Oh _____ is me!

3) Eaten me out of house and _____

4) What's in a _____?

5) Wear your heart on your _____

6) He will give the Devil his _____

7) All's well that ends _____

8) I must be cruel, only to be _____

9) As merry as the day is _____

10) 'Tis neither here nor _____

11) Dead as a _____

12) In my _____'s eye

13) All the world's a _____

14) To sleep perchance to _____

15) Double, double _____ and _____,
fire burn and cauldron bubble.

W.W. (4/7/2015)

Fill in the blanks

1) Neither rhyme nor reason

2) Oh woe is me!

3) Eaten me out of house and home

4) What's in a name?

5) Wear your heart on your sleeve

6) He will give the Devil his due

7) All's well that ends well

8) I must be cruel, only to be kind

9) As merry as the day is long

10) 'Tis neither here nor there

11) Dead as a doornail

12) In my mind's eye

13) All the world's a stage

14) To sleep perchance to dream

15) Double, double toil and trouble,
fire burn and cauldron bubble.

Daily Agenda W.W. (4/7/2015)

1. W.W.
2. Finish “Shakespeare in the Classroom” and film guide notes
3. Literary Terms definitions and introduction to Act 1 Packet
4. Introduction notes and Presentation for The Tragedy of Julius Caesar
5. Reminder: USA Test Prep tomorrow in F103
6. B.B.

B.B.

- Do you wear your heart on your sleeve?