"The Smoking Gun": Violence in Contemporary Entertainment America...land of the free, home of the brave...culture of death? Ostensibly, "culture of death" is the odd one out in this list. However, just as freedom and bravery have become synonymous with America, so too has a culture of death.
What has brought about such a change? It can be attributed to the fact that our day-to-day lives are filled with video games, television shows, movies, and music that continually bombard us with the same types of images—that of violent images. People, especially impressionable adolescents, feed off of both real and
